October 2011
Dear Friends,

Bob Morely was a counselor for a senior high summer camp in California. In his book, Aerobics For The Spirit, Bob tells about a summer when he was between regular jobs, and was therefore rather short of cash. Word of his situation spread around camp, and the campers took up a special collection and raised a hundred dollars which they presented to him.

Now the camp had a tradition of having a farewell party on the last day, Friday night. The youth would usually pool their money together, and one of the counselors would go to town and purchase snack food for them. Bob immediately realized that the money that had been given to him was the money that the campers had intended for soft-drinks and snacks for their party. So his first impulse was to take some of the money and buy some Cokes and cookies. But then he heard a little voice say, "Don't rob them of the joy of giving."

A farewell party was held on Friday night as planned. Instead of soft drinks, they drank water served in little cups. Instead of eating cookies, they had some dry crackers someone found in the camp kitchen. It didn't seem like much of a farewell celebration, but for some unknown reason that farewell party was the best one ever.

Those campers experienced, perhaps for the first time, the joy of sacrificial giving. They had sacrificed their own self-interest and turned their attention on someone else. As Bob put it: "Those little cups of water and crumbly wafers constituted for us what communion was meant to be, not a solemn ritual, but a celebration of mutual self-giving."

The first Sunday of October we join millions of our sisters and brothers in Christ as we come to the Lord's Table to celebrate World Communion Sunday. This day reminds us that we are one in Christ. Different languages are spoken, different traditions are observed, but our unity in Christ is unbroken.

As we prepare to celebrate this sacred meal, envision with me for a moment that a friend, a co-worker, or even a perceived stranger asks you a question. "I've see that you are a Christian," this person says. "You go to church every week. What can you tell me about the Christian faith?" How would you answer such a question? Where would you start?

My hope is that you would start with the testimony of the New Testament that Jesus Christ, who was the very reflection of God's glory, emptied himself and became part of the human family. Not only that, he died on the cross on our behalf. He, who could have called ten thousand angels to his rescue, drank the cup of submission to the purpose for which he was sent.

Perhaps, we have heard that message so often that we are desensitized to it. It is a claim so excessive that it leaves no room for evasion. Either it is true or it is not. And because it is true, what does it say about us? It says we matter. Regardless of our gender, or our race, or our economic status, or our age, or our accomplishments or lack thereof; if Christ left his royal throne to give his life in our behalf, then we matter!

The celebration of the Eucharist, or the Lord's Supper, or the Holy Communion, as it is called in the various traditions, is a family celebration. We are God's family. However, in the midst of our joy, let us remember that there are many around us who do not celebrate because they do not know what the Lord has done in Christ Jesus. It is our mission as Christians to share with them that they too can be adopted into God's family as we have been adopted.

On this World Wide Communion Sunday, commit yourselves to the sharing of the Good News of Jesus Christ to those in the community, in the workplace, and even to the strangers so they too may experience the peace and joy that God gives to each and everyone of His children.

In His Love,

Pastor Max

Welcome To Lansdale United Methodist Women

“The organized unit of United Methodist Women shall be a community of women whose purpose is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ; to develop a creative supportive fellowship; and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church”

WE ARE WOMEN WITH A “PURPOSE”

United Methodist Women is a faith-based organization. Membership is open to all women who are interested in fellowship and Christ’s call to mission. And to women who also indicate their desire to belong and to participate in the global mission of the church through United Methodist Women. As a member, each woman joins forces with other women to embrace and work on the four mission emphases reflected in the PURPOSE. They are: Spiritual Growth, Social Action, Education and Interpretation, and Membership Nurture and Outreach.

Our local unit has over fifty women and is comprised of four circles where guests are always welcome. Each circle has a Circle Leader who plans their programs, with input from circle members and they undertake individual projects. They join in fellowship, prayer, mission work, giving back to the community and a sense of fulfillment. They support annual fund-raisers and Mission Projects. We have a full schedule of activities throughout the year and our focus is on women, children and youth.

We have a popular Reading Program along with Response Magazine and New World Outlook. They are located in the church library and available to everyone.

You are invited to join our LUMW and share in new opportunities to learn and grow and make new friends and enjoy Christian fellowship.

A Wonderful Job Opportunity To Be In Service To The Lord: “UMW Circle Leader”

Wanted: A woman who Loves the Lord and would so enjoy leading our Jesus Christ’s Cracked Pots (JCCP) Circle.

She would plan programs, with input from circle members and undertake individual projects.

Circle members meet once a month, on second Tuesday at 7:30 PM, at the church for Spiritual Growth and fellowship time. They have been a very active women’s group.

She would also be on the Executive Board, which meets on First Monday of the month at 7:00PM.

Please call Arlene Lukens if you would like to pursue this great opportunity to lead and minister to women.

The Women's Retreat will be January 27-29, 2012 at Camp Innabah (near Downingtown, PA). More information will be coming next month.

Bright Beginnings

Bright Beginnings started off another wonderful year on Monday, September 12th. We welcomed all the families, some new and many returning. In September the children learned about their colors, and we did a unit on Apples.

In October we will be learning about Pumpkins. We will be taking a field trip to Freddy Hill Farm. This is one of many highlights of the year. We will be taking a hay ride to the pumpkin patch to pick our very own pumpkins. Then the tractor takes us to the Corn Maze, where we get to explore and try to find our way to the giant slide which we get to go down to exit the maze. Boy is it a lot of fun! It's always entertaining to the parents and teachers when Miss Liz is one of the last ones out, because she always manages to get lost!! Then it is off the the farm store for an ice cream cone! Yum!!

In October we will also be having the photographer come out to take school photos of the children. They always look so cute! Then comes Halloween, and we will be having a short program for the parents, where the children get to parade around Stringer in their costumes, and sing their fall songs for their Moms, Dads & Grandparents. Then we have a party where the children and parents get to enjoy it together.

If you would like more information about your Church's Nursery School please contact Liz Bonner at 215-362-1373, email brightbeginnings5@verizon.net, and she will be glad to help you out in any way possible.

1935 Young Adult Ministry Real, Relevant, Relational

Greetings friends!

Classes have begun and our days in the sun have ended. Well, not completely. We can still enjoy the leaves turning various colors and for some of us fall is the best time of the year. Hopefully all the strange weather patterns are a thing of the past and we can look forward to winter. Praise God that the hurricane season is over with! We had an awesome time at Pocono Plateau. We learned about how our joy in the Lord is not dependent on how we feel in the present, rather we experience Joy for who God is to each of us. Special thanks to all the young adults who ventured to the retreat in late September. It may have been a little wet, but last month Eva our praise team leader and her husband Brian hosted a cookout that will never be forgotten. We had a great turnout! We will find our way together as we discover God's propose for our lives. Check out our 1935 fan page at www.facebook.com/1935YA as well as our events page at www.lansdale-umc.org.

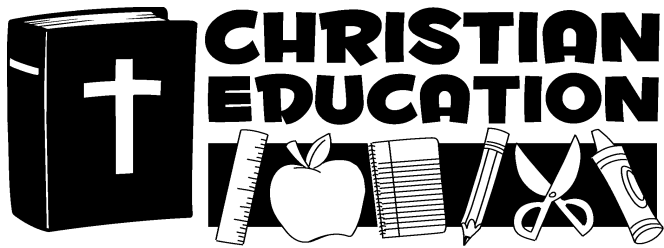

Our Sunday School is in full swing and it's nice to see new young adults joining us Sunday mornings at 10:15am. If you have never been to our class, you are welcome to join us upstairs. We have decided to switch up our VBS-Volleyball Bible Study and offer new games and activities to the mix. Childcare is always provided. Stay tuned for more info on the website. Be on the lookout for a 1935 Corn Maze/Dinner on Saturday October 15th as well as future game nights/potluck dinners. We pray you have a pleasant and peaceful fall!

For any questions, insights or comments, please contact Scott Dorn at lumcyoungadult@verizon.net or call the church office at 215-855-8364 ext. 6.

Grace and Peace,

Advent Dinner scheduled for Sunday, December 4th at 6P.M.

What a beautiful time fall is. You can see God's handiwork everywhere you look. The leaves are so beautiful, and the cooler days are a refreshing change from the heat of summer. Change is a good thing. It keeps life interesting. Changes are everywhere in our lives. Children have headed back to school, and that means back to Sunday School too! That is a wonderful thing! We welcomed the new Sunday School year with a kick off on September 11. This was Rally Day. The children and adults met for fellowship and refreshments in Stringer Auditorium. The youth, led by Brent presented a highlight of their mission trip to McColl, South Carolina. It was simply amazing to see how much they accomplished during that short week! Then the children met with their Sunday School teachers and had a brief time in their new classrooms. It was an especially important day for the 3rd grade children in the Sunday School. They were presented with their new Bibles during both services. They were encouraged to use their Bible as a guide book for their lives. They learned that a Bible RULES!!!

Another wonderful Fall event will soon be upon us! This is the Fall Festival, of course. Mark your calendars and come out on Saturday October 15th from 6:30-8:30. There is a sign up sheet outside of Stringer for anyone who would like to volunteer to help or donate food for this special event.

We wish you all a wonderful fall. Please come out and join us in Sunday School! There are classes for all ages -infants through 99 years young!! Remember "Sunday School is for Life! If you have any questions about Sunday School, or would like to volunteer in any way, please contact Liz Bonner.

Internet Giving

Setting up giving to the church electronically can be done on your bank's web site or through a financial management program such as Quicken. In both cases a paper check is mailed to LUMC (we are not set up for electronic deposit). In either case, you set up the church as a payee as follows:

Lansdale United Methodist Church
Attn: Financial Secretary
300 N. Broad Street
Lansdale, PA 19446

(be sure to include "Attn: Financial Secretary" in the address section so the check will be included in the Sunday offering)

Then set your envelope number as the account number and indicate in the memo section how you want your gift to be used. For example: All operations or $20 operations $5 improvement.

The final step is to indicate when you want the payment to arrive. I suggest setting the date to be the Friday before you want the gift to be received.

That way if the mail is delayed until Saturday, your gift will arrive in time to be included in the Sunday offering.

If you have any questions please feel free to call.

Dear Pastor Max & Church Family,

Thank you, Pastor Max, so very much for your hospital visits during my recent hospitalization for the knee replacement. I so enjoy our little talks. Your prayers are so comforting and reassuring.

I so appreciated the many cards of healing and good wishes from the congregation. The altar flowers of red carnations and yellow daisies carried thoughts of the spoken word and music from the service.

Gratefully,
Nancy Clarke

Thank You to our many friends for your prayers, and expressions of sympathy during this difficult time of the passing of my mother.
